"It is remarkable that no adequate ordinance to protect the public has been adrawn before," said the Commissioner.

The companies charge what they please for carrying passengers, with no law to compel an equitable and fair treatment of patrons. This has encouraged the drivers to take advantage of every little subterfuge, and there are constant complaints of overcharges. In many cases we have found a passenger has paid two farse because the chauffeur deliberately failed to reset the first of the minutes on the chauffeur deliberately failed to reset the first of the minutes of the defunct Carnegie Safe Deposit Company, across the street from their burned out home at No. 115 front way.

The Aldermanic Committee in charge of the Nicoli ordinance, presented at the last meeting of the Board, is not disposed to hurry. At the City Hali to-day it was said no action would be taken for at least two months. The purpose of the delay is not yet apparent. It is recalled that the former committee, controlled by Tammany, held up a taxicab ordinance for nearly a year and then, when forced to act, passed one so faulty that it was promptily discredited by the courts.

The Nicoli ordinance is to be held up and another drawn. Mayor Gaynor is footing to work on one after he gets Mr. Fosdick's report.

Alderman Nicoli said to-day he was not responsible for the proposed delay and would urge the committee to act on his ordinance.
